

English Martyrs' Catholic Primary School Newslett

23rd October 2015

The Month of Mary – The Month of the Rosary

Termly Learning Conferences

Letters have been sent out to each class informing you of the appointed date for the learning conferences. These appointments are very important as it offers a time to discuss your child's progress, goals and achievements with the teacher. Please check the school website events diary for your child's date if unsure.

Appointments can be made through the school office or with class teacher at the end of the day.

Black History Month

All the children wore traditional clothes from their country on Thursday and the outfits were fantastic, it was wonderful to see everyone make such a fantastic effort. There will be photos on the school website so please keep checking to have a look.

School Governors Visit

The morning of Thursday 5th November, the school Governors will be visiting our school.

Assessment Workshops

Ms Mintram will be holding parent workshops to help explain assessments on 9th November 9.00am Bld 2
13th November 2.30 Bld 1

All parents/carers are invited to attend.

Half Term - Monday 26th - Friday 30th October 2015

Pupils return on Monday 2nd November. We wish you all a lovely relaxing holiday

We have completed our first half term of this school academic year. Thank you to all parents/carers for your support and encouragement this half term with your child's learning and we ask that you continue in the holidays with daily reading and Mymaths.

Take advantage of our wonderful City and the free entrance into many Museums this holiday, there are many wonderful and educational exhibitions on offer that help enhance your child's learning.

Educational Trips

There have been many wonderful trips this half term, from Reception through to year 6 which all link into their learning. Year 5 & 6 got to experience the Trenches in Belgium, Reception spent a fantastic day seeing the Sunflowers exhibition and year 5 visited the British Museum. Year 4 had a Roman workshop in school and Year 3 had road safety. There are many more exciting trips arranged in the half term.

Reminder that the Clocks go back by one hour on Sunday 25th

October bringing an end to British Summer Time, or Daylight Saving Time. The clocks change at 2am on the last Sunday of October, meaning there is less daylight in the evenings and more in the mornings. As the evenings are now becoming darker earlier, we ask that you take extra care around the local busy roads and encourage children to wear something that is reflective so that they can be seen by cyclists and cars.
