

Statutory Testing 2021

In view of the Covid related disruptions and school closures in recent months, the Government has announced in January 2021 that Statutory Testing will not be taking place this year in Primary schools.

This means that there will be no formal SATs tests or Phonics screening this year. Instead, children will be assessed by their class teachers.